

Personal statement:

"Probably my most meaningful moment was getting to go to Nepal with "Hands for Asia." The whole team got to meet a whole different culture and help out in the way of making low-smoke cooking ovens for their little tee-pees that they live in and providing recyclable diapers. It was really an incredible three days!

"I'm reading the Ultimate Goals series right now and doing the whole workbook. I thought I was a Fire/Tortoise (curious/patient) so I tried to work at a bookstore! Bad idea. I had done step two wrong so I'm really Lightning/Jackrabbit (impulsive/careless) and that's more entertainment/military/event planning."
